Report On One Day Seminar

18th January, 2021

Resource Person: Dr. Arunsinh Solanki

Topic: "Intellectual Property Rights Awareness Programme

Venue: (Y.S Arts & K.S Shah Commerce College, Devgad-Baria)

The workshop was held at Y.S Arts & K.S Shah Commerce College Devgad-Baria. The Programme started with prayer and welcome address by the college Principal B.F.Makarani. The key note speaker of the programme was Dr.Arunsinh Solanki, Principal of Sarvajnik Commerce College, Godhra. The objective of this Awareness Programme is to sensitize the form of Patents, Designs & Trademarks and Geographical Indications, of inventors & creators from misappropriation by third party without their authorization. The Programme was designed for B.A and B.com students for the awareness and rights of the IPR law. As the knowhow of Intellectual Property (IP) itself is very new to the students of BA and B.com.

Most of the participants were in the process of understanding the basics of Intellectual Property Rights. 52 students actively participated in the seminar. It was felt that some of the technical sessions based on IPR should be organised in future which would help in increasing the awareness about this subject. A simpler and more basic technical programme structure may be more fit in future. Overall, the programme went well and all the dignitaries and concern person attended the programme and made it a very successful. The number of students including our faculty members present at the programme reached about 74 which were more than expected. The students and faculty members from the college were very enthusiastic and eager to know about the IPR and also had given their best for the success of the programme. The workshop concluded with the vote of thanks by Dr D.M Vankar associate Professor in Department of Hindi.

Report on Workshop on Research Methodology

10th February 2021

The Research Methodology workshop was organized by Department of English of Y.S Arts & K.S Shah Commerce College Devgad-Baria on the 10th of February 2021, at Seminar Hall. The program was mainly aimed at Post Graduate students of the college students. The program was coordinated by Dr. J.D.Hirpara. 48 students and participants from the college were part of this workshop. The Workshop was handled by Dr. S. R. Sing, head Department of English. He started the session by giving an introduction to research, different types of research, experimental design, the need for finding an unanswered problem to start research, and the importance of literature review. Various online catalogues and search engines used for research purposes, various statistical approaches, reference formats, and software were also included in his talk. He also emphasized the purpose of the research proposal, the required features and also highlighted the contents that should be included while writing a research proposal. As a part of the workshop training, the students were grouped and were asked to write a model proposal. The talk was very informative and gave the student a general idea of how to select a research topic for their M.A dissertation and also became aware of the path that they should follow while performing research.
